

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

TO THE LEGAL PROFESSION.

THOMAS FARRIES, SEN.,
Law Costs Draftsman and Law Accountant,
50, CHANCERY LANE,

Respectfully invites the attention of the Profession to the advantages offered by his system of drawing Bills of Costs, whether as regards Arrears or Current Costs for the year.

As regards Arrears, T. F. begs to state that in cases where no minutes have been made, but where the papers are reasonably straightforward, he engages to draw them, supplying the necessary deficiencies; and, however imperfect the materials or information may be, he never charges more than 5 per cent. on the gross amount of the Bills as drawn, and afterwards settled by the principal or his managing clerks; and this also includes a fair copy of such Bills for perusal, and every expense of T. F. and clerks.

In the next place, when the minutes and attendances have been fairly kept, and the papers are in tolerably good order, T. F.'s terms do not exceed more than 3½ per cent., and that includes the before-named services.

With reference to Costs for the current year, T. F. may further state that he is now, and has for some time been, engaged in drawing Costs in the following manner, viz.:—The parties for whom he is engaged have their minutes drafted out, and send them to London monthly, or as arranged, and from these minutes he draws the matter into proper Bills of Costs, so that at any time the Bills may be settled and sent out to clients; and every six months (in the case of country firms) he attends their place of business and completes such Bills, incorporating the agency for the half year. The terms for carrying on work of this description is in proportion to the amount, and very moderate considering the advantages to be derived from it.

N.B.—In most of the Bills which T. F. has drawn during the last twenty years the phraseology and charges have been but slightly altered by the principals for whom he has been engaged, and the little trouble which is thus required to be taken by legal firms in settling the Bills he has drawn convinces him that if the Profession had their Arrears made up they would find it a great advantage as regards the loss of interest on the outstanding Bills, whilst it would at the same time be more satisfactory to clients, and it has also this further advantage, that facts can be remembered which are lost sight of by delay, and imperfect bookkeeping.

THIS WORK IS RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO THE
Members of the Legal Profession,
IN
MANY KINDNESSES RECEIVED FROM THAT LEARNED AND INFLUENTIAL BODY, BY THEIR VERY OBEDIENT, HUMBLE SERVANT,
THE COMPILER.

P R E F A C E.

SINCE the compiler published his last volume of Law Costs several important changes have been made, more particularly with reference to Bankruptcy proceedings under the Act of 1869, by virtue of which the scale of fees in Bankruptcy allowed on taxation have been altered. In addition to these alterations, an entirely new course of proceeding has been introduced under the head of Liquidation, which is one of the main provisions of the Act of 1869, and the practical working of that feature in the new law, since it came into operation, has already established the fact that Liquidation according to its provisions has become general.

Under these circumstances, the compiler has had much pleasure in complying with the request of several members of the profession to issue a new and revised edition of his "Law Costs Guide."

Having, since the Act came into operation, been engaged in drawing a number of bills specially connected with cases in Liquidation, the compiler has availed himself of the opportunity thus afforded him to prepare several Precedents, carefully drawn, which will be found in the following pages, and he confidently trusts that they will meet with the approbation of the Registrars of the various courts, as well as of those members of the profession who may be pleased to patronise the work.

The compiler desires further to state that as County Court practice has now become of great importance he has embodied in this edition Precedents in that court which will be found of much utility to the profession.

It is hoped that on perusal the present edition will be found a safe and useful guide to all who may have occasion to refer to it, inasmuch as the Precedents have been drawn from actual experience.

The expense of an assignment will not be allowed where the declaration of inability would answer the purpose.

A petitioning creditor is not to be regarded as a witness, and is not to be paid for loss of time. He may claim his expenses of travelling and subsistence.

R. M. V., 1865.

(1) The stamp to be used for collecting the fees payable in the several offices, in the Courts of Common Law at Westminster, and in the Judge's Chambers, by virtue of the above Act, shall, subject to the provisions of the 7th & 8th of these rules, be stamped or affixed at the expense of the parties liable to pay such fees, on to the vellum, parchment, or paper, on which the proceedings in respect whereof such fees are payable are written or printed, or which may be otherwise used in reference to such proceedings.

(2.) Where any of such fees are payable in respect of any matter or thing to be done by any officer, or in any office of the said Courts, or at the Judge's Chambers, and it shall not have been customary to use any written or printed documents or paper, in reference to such matter or thing, whereon the stamp could be stamped or affixed, the party or his attorney requiring such matter or thing to be done, or permitted to be done, shall make application for the same, by a præcipe, or short note in writing or print, and a stamp denoting the amount of the fee so payable, shall be stamped or affixed, to such præcipe or note.

(3) All adhesive stamps affixed to any paper or document, presented to or kept in the possession of any of the officers of the said Courts, or of the clerks of the Judges, shall, before

(5.) That distributors of stamps and all persons licensed to sell stamps in England and Wales, shall be permitted to sell the stamps above referred to, and that an office be provided in or attached to the Judge's Chambers for the sale of stamps.
